2. Composition and appointment of members of the Corporation

2.1 Composition of the Corporation

- (1) the Corporation shall consist of—
 - (a) a minimum two members, to include one member of staff and one student appointed by a method determined by the Corporation;
 - (b) any number of members who appear to the Corporation to have the necessary skills to ensure that the Corporation carries out its functions under the Articles of Government;
 - (c) the Principal of the institution;
- (2) A person who is not for the time being enrolled as a student at the institution shall nevertheless be treated as a student during any period of authorised absence from the institution for study, travel or for carrying out the duties of any office held by that person in the institution's students' union.
- (3) The appointing authority will decide whether a person is eligible for nomination, election and appointment as a member of the Corporation.
- (4) The Corporation may at any time vary the number of members provided that minimum requirements of composition as here outlined (and in accordance with schedule 4) are met and that this does not terminate the appointment of any person who is already a member of the Corporation.
- (5) Where the office of any member becomes vacant the appointing authority will as soon as practicable take all necessary steps to appoint a new member to fill the vacancy.
- (6) A member of the Corporation will hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of the appointment, but the length of a term of office will not exceed four years.
- (7) Members retiring at the end of a term of office will be eligible for reappointment, and instrument 2 will apply to the reappointment of a member as it does to the appointment of a member.

2.2 Appointing Authority

- a. Subject to (2.2b) the Corporation is the appointing authority.
- b. If the number of members falls below the number needed for a quorum the Secretary of State is the appointing authority in relation to those members needed for a quorum.

1. Appointment of members and terms of office

- 1.1 The Personnel Committee will consider nominations and applications (other than those of staff and student governors).
- 1.2 The Personnel Committee will refer to composition and skills before making recommendations to the Corporation in relation to all appointments, reappointments and co-options it is recommending.
The Corporation welcomes applications from all groups of society, including those who are underrepresented.
- 1.3 Nominations or applications may be sought from an organisation or an individual, or through advertisement on behalf of the Corporation by the Personnel Committee.
- 1.4 Persons who may wish to self-nominate or to nominate another person for consideration as a member of the Corporation of Halesowen College, in relation to a vacancy, should contact the Director of Governance.
- 1.5 For the position of student member(s) the Principal, or their agent, will organise an appropriate selection process, the results of which will be presented to the Corporation. The Student member is to be a student at the College. The student member is appointed for an academic year.
- 1.6 For the position of staff member, the Director of Governance will organise an election amongst all employees, the results of which will be presented to the Corporation. The staff member is to be employed under a contract of permanent employment (and may be a member of the academic or the non-academic staff). The staff member is appointed for a period of office of two years.
- 1.7 Subject to relevant procedures and eligibility criteria members are eligible for consideration for reappointment, however staff and student positions are subject to an election process.
- 1.8 The Corporation requires compliance with eligibility criteria therefore all appointments and reappointments, including co-options, will be made in compliance with agreed stipulations regarding eligibility, which includes DBS checks. All members are required to declare and keep their eligibility under review. DBS checks are conducted for new appointees and subsequently every three years in office.
- 1.9 New member appointments (other than staff and student) are usually made for a one-year term of office in the first instance, with potential for further appointment terms of a period of up to four years.
- 1.10 Unless the Corporation resolves otherwise (on the basis that it is in the best interests of the Corporation), no individual shall be appointed as a member for more than two consecutive terms of four years, (or the sum of shorter terms reaching eight years). Should the Corporation resolve to extend an individual's consecutive appointments beyond this limit, such extension shall be for no more

3. Termination of Membership

- 3.1. A member may resign from office at any time by giving notice in writing to the Director of Governance.
- 3.2. If at any time the Corporation is satisfied that any member is unfit or unable to discharge the functions of a member; or has been absent for a period longer than 6 consecutive months, without the permission of the Corporation the Corporation may by notice in writing to that member remove the member from office and the office will then be vacant.
- 3.3. Any person who is a member of the Corporation by virtue of being a member of the staff at the institution, including the Principal, shall cease to hold office upon ceasing to be a member of the staff and the office will then be vacant.
- 3.4. A student member shall cease to hold office — after ceasing to be a student at the College and the office will then be vacant.

4. Members not to hold interests in matters relating to the institution

- 4.1 Members will complete a declarations of interest register and review this at least annually.
- 4.2 Except with the written approval of the Secretary of State, no member shall acquire or hold any interest in any property that is held or used for the purposes of the institution.
- 4.3 A member will-disclose to the Corporation the nature and extent of the interest; and
 - i. if present at a meeting of the Corporation, or of any of its committees, at which such supply, contract or other matter is to be considered, not take part in the consideration or vote on any question with respect to it and not be counted in the quorum present at the meeting in relation to a resolution on which that member is not entitled to vote; and
 - ii. withdraw, if present at a meeting of the Corporation, or any of its committees, at which such supply, contract or other matter is to be considered, where required to do so by a majority of the members of the Corporation or committee present at the meeting.

This applies to a member who—

- a) has any financial interest in
 - i. the supply of work to the institution, or the supply of goods for the purposes of the institution;
 - ii. any contract or proposed contract concerning the institution; or
 - iii. any other matter relating to the institution; or
- b) has any other interest of a type specified by the Corporation in any matter relating to the institution.

than twelve months and any further extension must be approved by resolution of the Corporation after full review of such individual's appointment by the Personnel Committee.

- 1.11 The Corporation, following consideration by the Personnel Committee, may appoint previous members following a break in service.

2. Eligibility and persons who are ineligible to be members

- 2.1 All members are required to sign and keep under review a Declaration of Eligibility. Ineligibility includes but is not limited to the following:
- 2.2 No one under the age of 18 years may be a member, except as student member.
- 2.3 The appointing authority may decline to appoint a person as a member if
 - a) satisfied that the person has been removed from office as a member of a further education corporation in the previous ten years; or
 - b) the appointment of the person would contravene the number of years which a person may serve.
- 2.4 The Director of Governance may not be a member.
- 2.5 A person who is a member of staff of the institution may not be, or continue as, a member, except as a staff member or in the capacity of Principal. This does not apply to a student who is employed by the Corporation in connection with the student's role as an officer of a students' union.
- 2.6 A person shall be disqualified from holding, or from continuing to hold, office as a member, if that person has been adjudged bankrupt or is the subject of a bankruptcy restrictions order, an interim bankruptcy restrictions order or a bankruptcy restrictions undertaking within the meaning of the Insolvency Act 1986 (1986 c.45 as amended by the Enterprise Act 2002 (c. 40)), or if that person has made a composition or arrangement with creditors, including an individual voluntary arrangement.

Where, as detailed under 2.6 bankruptcy, bankruptcy (or interim) restrictions order or undertaking order or composition or arrangements with creditors including an individual voluntary agreement is annulled or discharged that disqualification shall cease.

- 2.7 Subject to paragraph 2.8 a person shall be disqualified from holding, or from continuing to hold, office as a member if —
 - a) within the previous five years that person has been convicted, whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, of any offence and has received a sentence of imprisonment, whether suspended or not, for a period of three months or more, without the option of a fine; or
 - b) within the previous twenty years that person has been convicted as set out in sub-paragraph (a) and has received a sentence of imprisonment, whether suspended or not, for a period of more than two and a half years; or

This shall not prevent the members considering and voting upon proposals for the Corporation to insure them against liabilities incurred by them arising out of their office or the Corporation obtaining such insurance and paying the premium. 4.4 Where the matter under consideration by the Corporation or any of its committees relates to the pay and conditions of all staff, or all staff in a particular class, a staff member <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) need not disclose a financial interest; and b) may take part in the consideration of the matter, vote on any question with respect to it and count towards the quorum present at that meeting, provided that in so doing, the staff member acts in the best interests of the Corporation as a whole and does not seek to represent the interests of any other person or body, but c) shall withdraw from the meeting if the matter is under negotiation with staff and the staff member is representing any of the staff concerned in those negotiations. 4.5 The Director of Governance will maintain a register of the interests of the members which have been disclosed and the register shall be made available during normal office hours at the institution to any person wishing to inspect it.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> c) that person has at any time been convicted as set out in sub-paragraph (a) and has received a sentence of imprisonment, whether suspended or not, of more than five years 2.8 For the purpose of this Standing Order there shall be disregarded any conviction by or before a court outside the United Kingdom for an offence in respect of conduct which, if it had taken place in the United Kingdom, would not have constituted an offence under the law then in force anywhere in the United Kingdom. 2.9 In addition, a person shall be disqualified from holding, or from continuing to hold, office as a member if they would be otherwise disqualified by law from acting as a trustee of a charity under sections 178 to 181 of the Charities Act 2011. Note <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) the expansion of criteria under changes to the automatic disqualifications for charities which came into force on the 1st August 2018. b) There is some scope for individual trustees to apply for a waiver should they become disqualified. c) Further Government guidance on automatic disqualifications and waivers is available at https://www.gov.uk/guidance/automatic-disqualification-rules-for-charity-trustees-and-charity-senior-positions#the-current-automatic-disqualification-rules. 2.10 Upon a member of the Corporation becoming disqualified from continuing to hold office for any reason, the member shall immediately give notice of that fact to the Director of Governance.
